This black basalt slab is perhaps the most famous hieroglyphic inscription known. Not only was it a beautiful example of ancient writing, it was also the key to understanding the Egyptian language and unlocking the history of one of the world's greatest ancient civilizations.