Photographs of David Sarnoff
Radio Inquiry Unit – Supporting Question 2

David Sarnoff began his career at the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America as an office boy in 1906. He went on to become a trailblazer in the radio and television industry, predicted the smartphone in the early 1960's and was the visionary leader of the Radio Corporation of America (RCA) for most of the company’s history.
Visit Source: http://www.hagley.org/librarynews/sarnoff/who-was-david-sarnoff-part-i-1891-1929

!David Sarnoff, aged 15, 1906
David Sarnoff at the Marconi wireless station in Wanamaker’s Department Store New York City, c. 1912
David Sarnoff introduces the new NBC television system behind RCA's exhibit hall at the 1939 New York World's Fair.

Accessed: 13 June 2017
http://www.hagley.org/librarynews/sarnoff/who-was-david-sarnoff-part-i-1891-1929
Accessed: 13 June 2017
http://www.hagley.org/node/997